

Vivienne Lütteken

I do what I love...

Follow your dreams and make them your path.

Through my work I aim to contribute something meaningful to the society and to connect people through arts and culture.

I am a versatile dancer and project manager. As the founder of KONA e.V. I organize international workshops and culture events. I also do team building events with companies and I manage the KONArt online shop, selling innovative and creative products to support culture, art and social projects.
